Washington 23rd Mar 1828

Dear Sir

I have the pleasure to inform you that the as well as I have of the committee for your Patriotic purpose, I have enclosed you the names that have been, that you may know your true friends. I hope this will not be the only circumstance that it will be in my power to make to you.

I am sure, I expect to make to you & to your friends a prospect that has been published here against Jackson & Co., which I am sure is going to the country in great quantities. Washington is well

I am very truly

Yours
P.S. Let me hear of the safe arrival of the $35.
